

|                                      |                                       |   |                  |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|---|------------------|
| STATE                                | COUNTY                                | TOWN OR VICINITY  | * 6S5P3d |
| Illinois                             | Gallatin                              | Shawneetown   |                  |
| INDEX NUMBER                         | MONUMENT                              |   |                  |
| ILL 30-SHAWT 2-                      | OLD STATE BANKMAIN ST. + ROUTE 13 |   |                  |
| REPRESENTED INNEGATIVE FILE      | H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.25-4 ✓         | History: Built in 1839-40. Oneof first State Banks.                          |                  |
| PUBLISHEDPHOTOGRAPHS             |                                       | Present Owner 1st Nat'l   |                  |
| PUBLISHEDDRAWINGS                | GR. REVIVALDescription:    | Bank of Shawneetown.Brick and Stone (4) stories 25Pitch roof                    |                  |
| * neg forsheet 1F.N. - 1 | Reference:                     | History of Gallatin, Saline,Hamilton, Franklin & WilliamsonCounties. 1887 p 98. |                  |
| GPO 6-8369                           | HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY    |   |                  |

Unusual in that it has five columns on the front.

Edgar E. Lundeen, Bloomington, Illinois.
April 1934.